

CNU STUDY ABROAD IN EUROPE

Summer 2009

HIST 276: “America and Postwar Europe”

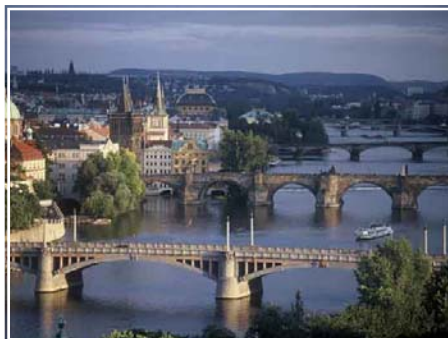

This course represents an opportunity for CNU students to study in Europe during the summer to explore the American relationship to three important postwar capitals: one western (Rome), one eastern (Prague), and one divided (Berlin). We will use history as our laboratory to examine the volatile political and cultural transformations from the Second World War to the Cold War to the present, and the contests between democracy, fascism, and communism. And we will observe the theme of Americanization in its various forms. Is there a better way to earn 3 credits of credit toward graduation?

Trip Dates: mid-May to early-June 2009 (tentative)

We will leave Virginia soon after final exams in order to take advantage of pleasant weather, reduced airfare and crowds, and to allow students to use the rest of summer for work, classes, and relaxation.

Requirements: All CNU students are invited to join us. There is no language requirement. To earn 3 credit hours of HIST 276 = $3500, plus tuition. This tentative price includes transportation, accommodations, and admission fees. The price is subject to change due to the number of participants, and the fluctuation in airfare and exchange rates. Students are responsible for meals and incidentals.
